Endorsement (ZP)

Notwithstanding the provisions of the credit insurance policy, it is agreed that:

Disputed Debt Threshold

Notwithstanding the Article 2.3.iii of the General Provisions of this contract, cover can be maintained for deliveries made to a buyer on whom a notification of overdue account should have been given, when the followings conditions apply:

- The buyer raises a dispute related to the amount owing; and
- The amount of the dispute does not exceed 10% of the debt, or NTD15,000,000, whichever is lower

However if after a delay of six months from the date when the notification of overdue account should have been given the dispute is not solved and the disputed debt remains unpaid, you will give a notification of overdue account and no further deliveries will be covered in application of the Article 2.3.iii
